W. C. T. U.

During the National W. C. T. U. Convention at Buffalo, a young woman receiving an award from the hand of Miss Willard, looked into her face and then turning to the immense audience, said, in a voice full of emotion "To receive this award is much to me and to the young women I represent—to receive it from the hand of one who is considered the ideal woman to her sex all over the world,—this is joy unspeakable."

This remark shows the place which Miss Willard occupies in minds and hearts everywhere. The ideal woman! Her nature was at once both spiritual and practical; a combination of tenderness and strength; of depth and simplicity; a mingling of love and fearlessness. Thousands of people in many lands and climes loved Francis E. Willard.

Far above her strong intellect, which compels our admiration; far above her force of character, which demands our respect; far above the spotless purity of her life, to which we bow in reverence, there shines the light of divine love which wins and holds our affection forever, because of her entire self-forgetfulness. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Campbell presented the Library Association with a picture of Miss Willard—the gift of Miss Marshman framed by the W. C. T. U.

A gold tablet with name engraved thereon, was also furnished by the Union.

Dr. Cooper graciously received the gift and paid a tribute of high appreciation to the character of Miss Willard.

Mr F. M. Righter gave words of strong commendation of the work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union telling how at the International Sunday School Convention, from which he had just returned, several noted speakers had given credit to the work of the W. C. T. U., above all other organizations, for the advance of temperance sentiments and enactment of prohibitory laws in the several states.

An extremely delightful and profitable Mother's Meeting was held recently at the home of Mrs. W. W. Stewart.

Mrs. Alfred Kennedy, County Superintendent of Mother's Meetings gave the address, which all agree was extremely fine, and combining as it did suggestions both spiritual and natural which she had gained from her own rich and varied experiences. About thirty ladies were present.

A Social hour followed at which time the genial hostess and her assistants served delicious refreshments. The ladies had, at this time, the pleasure of meeting the husband and son of the speaker. It is hoped that before long Mrs. Kennedy may address a public "Parent's Meeting" in Campbell and we predict a large attendance upon that occasion.

That was an interesting collection of various items which the Woman's Christian Temperance Union placed in a strong box and had cemented into the "corner stone" of its new building.

Among other things were historical sketches of the organization and of the work in the Coffee Club; plans of department work, together with variety of other available data; there was also a Lincoln penny and other small coins—all of which, it is expected "will be of great interest when it is opened one hundred years from now."

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Newcome on Wednesday afternoon.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Pres., Mrs. M. Savage.
Cor. Sec., Mrs. Belle Righter.
Rec. Sec., Mrs. M. E. Brown.
Treas., Mrs. Ida R. Newcome.
Auditor, Mrs. Annie Stewart.
Vice Pres. at Large, Mrs. M. M. Whitman.
First Vice Pres., Mrs. Kennedy.
Second Vice Pres., Mrs. Lillian Olmstead.

New Lumber Merchan[illegible]

The Bryant Co. Take Over C. B. Miracle's Intrests—36 Cars Lumber on the Way

The Campbell lumber yards, formerly conducted by C. B. Miracle, is now in the hands of The Bryant Co. The firm consists of W. D. Sturtevant and J. Rea Bryant, equal partners. The company has purchased the plant at Los Gatos, and has purchased the stock and leased the grounds and plant at Campbell.

Mr. W. D. Sturtevant, who has charge of the business at Campbell, is experienced in lumbering and carpenter work. For the past four years he has been secretary of the State Board of Prison Directors, which position he resigned to engage in this business at Campbell. Mr. Sturtevant with his family will temporarily occupy the Miracle cottage at the yards.

Mr. Bryant is a thorough lumberman, having been in the business for the past 28 years. For the last four years he was at Lodi, previous to that at Corning eight years. Mr. Bryant has purchased the beautiful home of D. C. Crummey on Glen Ridge, and will superintendent the works at Los Gatos.

We have had the pleasure of meeting both of these men and members of their families, and we find them people who will take an interest in our schools and churches, and all that pertains to the welfare of the community.

The Company has already begun improvements about the Cmmpbell plant. The mill will be put in good condition to handle all classes of mill work; a cement foundation will be built under the machinery, and, what will delight many of our people, the unsightly lumber piles will be kept out of the street. The company now has 36 [illegible] cars of lumber on the way. There will be much building in this community in the next few years, and no doubt these enterprising men will build up a splendid business.

Sovereign of Great Britain Attain Crowing Glory

London.—With medieval splendor England's King has been enthroned. Perhaps never in history, certainly never in the experience of any person who witnessed it, has there been an historic scene so magnificent.

Never before in history has the imperial note been struck in such a magnificent manner. Its imperial aspect was undoubtedly the most remarkable feature of the coroantion.

George V, more than any other sovereign of the past, represents the embodiment of the imperial idea. He only of the predecessors on the throne traveled through his vast dominions and thus acquainted himself at first hand with the needs and aspirations of all the various peoples of his empire.

Then by happy coincidence the imperial conference, sitting at the time of the coronation, enabled all the representatives of the King's overseas dominions to participate in the significant ceremony at the opening of the new reign, which, if the hope of those attending the conference bears fruit, will bring all parts of the empire into closer and more intimate relations.

The great state pageant was carried through with dignity and made a deep impression on those privileged to witness it, and it was accompanied by an outburst of loyalty throughout the kingdom that might appear surprising at a period in the world's history when thrones no longer appear to be established on the surest foundations.

The remotest suburbs of the great city and every village in the land gave evidence of devotion and loyalty to the throne. Not the humblest home but displayed a flag or illuminated device, portraits of the King and Queen and a loyal motto.

The stirring events of the day were carried through without a hitch or serious accident of any kind. The weather was less favorable than had been hoped for, but even that had its compensating advantages, so that there was practically no need of the services of ambulances for cases of fainting or exhaustion, which are commonly attendant upon such occasions in hot sunshine.

Indian Medicine Man Killed As Witch Doctor

Susanville.—Big Mike and Jerry Wilson, Indians arrested near Bieber for the murder of Modoc Ben, another Indian, have confessed to the killing and have implicated another Indian in the conspiracy. They also have told enough to show that the murder was done with the approval of the entire tribe, as Modoc Ben was believed to have bewitched and caused the death of several Indians. The third man accused has also been captured.

The confession made to the Sheriff is to the effect that Modoc Ben acted as a medicine man or "doctor" for his tribe. A number of deaths aroused the superstition of the Indians, and instead of attributing these deaths to Ben's incompetency they decided that he had deliberately brought them about through witchcraft. As a result his removal was decided upon, and the Indians under arrest took it upon themselves to be his executioners

They purchased rifles and from ambush fired several bullets into Modoc Ben as he was cutting wood in a remote spot Only his squaw was near, and she awaited the arrival of other persons before giving the alarm that resulted in the prompt capture of the murderers Such executions of medicine men are not of rare occurrence, even at this late day.

Demonstration with Dynamite To California Farmers

Sacramento.—That dynamite can and will be successfully used by the farmers and orchardists in northern California in the preparation of soil, drainage and cultivation, was demonstrated at Fairoaks when representatives of the Horticultural Society gave an exhibition of the use of the explosives to about 200 assembled orchardists and farmers.

The demonstration was given in connection with a meeting called to discuss the standardization question. It was shown that a few sticks of dynamite properly applied will do the work that it is impossible to do in the ordinary way of farming. Perfect drainage can be procured, the hardpan reduced to tillable soil, and a few shots around trees will rejuvenate them when by the ordinary methods it is impossible for the water to get at the roots.

Hereafter farmers and orchardists in this section will have dynamite as one of their closest allies.

Saccharine May be Used Six Months Longer in Food

Washi... — Prosecutions against manufac...rs who use saccharine in food wi...e undertaken six months from Ju...st next, it was announced after a c...ference between Secretaries MacVeag... Wilson and Nagel.

The or...r placing saccharine under the ba... was issued originally to become ...ective July 1st, after the referee ...board of consulting experts had reported that food containing this product was deleterious when used continually for a long time.

However, the three Cabinet officers vested with final executive authority in the matter became satisfied that no particular harm would result from a six months' extension in its use and it was decided to give the manufacturers the time asked for in which to dispose of the stock on hand, it being stipulated, however, that meantime the presence of saccharine must be plainly declared on the label.

New Weights and Measures Law Has No Appropriation

Sacramento.—That the State has been without a legal standard of weights and measures, at least since 1877, and that in that time dealers have been able to fix their own standards according to their own codes has been discovered by Secretary of State Jordan.

When a Government inspector tested the standard of weights and measures in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oakland and Sacramento last January he found from 25 to 30 per cent under weight.

The Welch weights and measures bill passed at the last Legislature and approved by the Governor, which was aimed to provide the State with a uniform system of weights and measures, may be inadequate because an appropriation bill for $1500 that went with it was killed.

Canada Invests in Reindeer.

Ottawa, Ont.—The Government of Canada has made an addition to the transportation facilities of the country in the form of 50 reindeer. The purchase was made from Dr. Grenfell of Labrador. The reindeer proved a great success in Labrador. It is believed that with reindeer the winter travel in the Canadian north, where dog teams are now used, will be robbed of its dangers and a go... of its hardships.

Public Lands Convention.

Denver.—Governor John R. Shafroth set the date for holding a public land convention in Denver for September 28th, 29th and 30th. Delegates from every State and Territory west of the Missouri river, including Alaska, that has a public land acreage of not less than 1,000,000 acres will attend th... convention. Three thousand dele...es are expected. The Pinchot policy handling public lands will be one of important questions to be discussed.

PRESIDENT TAFT FAVORS BANK PLAN OF ALDRICH

Puts the Currency System Before All Other Important Legislation.

New York.—"There is no legislation—I care not what it is—tariff, raiload, corporation or of a general political character, that at all equals in importance the putting of our banking and currency system on the sound basis proposed in the national monetary commission plan."

So declared President Taft to a big gathering of bankers and men of prominence in the financial and business world at the banquet of the New York State Bankers' Association.

His address was mainly devoted to a careful elucidation of the Aldrich national reserve association plan, which he warmly commended as providing for "the establishment of the 7000 national banks of this country on a representative republican basis."

He declared it a "careful and well drawn plan devised by a non-partisan commission," to avoid the concentration of controlling influence either in Wall street or in Washington, and expressed his belief that the plan in its general features ought to commend itself to "the whole business community of the country," the farmers and wage earners, as well as the banking, railroad, commercial and manufacturing interests.

State May Regulate Price of Land.

Sacramento.—State regulation of the sale of farm land in California will be one of the subjects taken up for discussion at the annual country life commission convention at Davis next October. Francis Cuttle, member of the State Conservation Committee, in a talk before the members of the committee, declared that reverses suffered by farmers are often due to the practice of realty dealers selling land to persons unable to judge of its worth. That there is not enough country spirit in the country is the consensus of opinion among the members of the commission.

Portugal is Now a Republic.

Lisbon.—The United States has officially recognized the Republic of Portugal. This followed the opening of the new Constituent Assembly, at which the President of the chamber read a decree proclaiming the abolition of the monarchy and the banishment from Portugal of the royal family of Braganza, which was unanimously approved. The decree was also read by the President to the great throngs which gathered outside the assembly building, after which the chamber adjourned.

Overcharge for Carrying Mail.

Washington.—The railroads of the United States have been the recipients of something like $9,000,000 each year more for carrying the mails than they are entitled to, according to Postmaster General Hitchcock. As a result Hitchcock reiterated his declaration that Congress will be asked to authorized an adjustment of railway mail rentals with a view of saving this sum to the Government.

Child's Life Saved in Feather Bed.

Los Angeles.—James Nather, a teamster, saved his three-year-old baby from death in a burning house by throwing the child out of a second-story window onto a feather bed lying in the street. A gasoline stove in the Nather home, on the outskirts of the city, started the fire. The baby was in one of the upper story rooms.

Violator to be Prosecuted.

Sacramento.—Fifty-one charges were filed by the State Board of Health with the several District Attorneys, alleging violations of the pure food and drug laws of the State. These charges are in the form of recommendations that the District Attorneys bring action against the alleged violators.

Cholera Held in Quarantine.

New York.—Two deaths from cholera and one death at sea, hitherto not reported, have been announced at quarantine. In all four cases have been shown. The dead were passengers on board the Duca Degli Abruzzi, which arrived here from Mediterranean ports.

Shooting Editor to be Arraigned.

Stockton.—S. B. Axtell, editor of the Lodi Sentinel, who, on June 16th shot and killed Charles Sollars of Lodi, was arraigned before Justice A. C. Parker of this city and his preliminary trial was set for June 30th at 10 o'clock.

Tonypandy, Wales.—Expressing their dissatisfaction with the coronation of King George, 1200 striking miners refused to participate here in the celebration in honor of the accession of the new King of England.

Melrose, N. M.—Three miles south of town lightning picked one man from a group of three in a wagon, killing him and his team instantly. The man was Grant Watkins of St. Louis, traveling with a show troupe.

Bridgeport, Conn.—The tallest citizen ever naturalized in New England has just secured his final papers here. He is Captain George Auger, eight feet, one inch in height. Auger is a native of Cardiff, Wales, and a former London policeman.

Atlanta, Ga.—Although a graduate of Atlanta law school with honors, and considered the brightest member of her class, Miss Mienia A. Fels stands refused a license to practice law. Friends of Miss Fels say they will take the matter before the Legislature.

Vancouver, B. C.—Arthur S. Marsh, a hotel proprietor, 60 years old, dropped dead while watching a fire that destroyed the Franklin motor garage, in which his auto was housed. Thirty-four automobiles were destroyed in the fire, which caused a loss of $100,000.

New York.—Experiments of Dr. Simon Flexner at the Rockefeller institute have demonstrated conclusively that the house fly carries the germs of infantile paralysis and is responsible for the rapid spread of the terrible disease in some localities where it is epidemic.

London.—Two fatal coronation accidents were reported. At Limirges a cannon, with which a salute was being fired, burst, and a prominent citizen was blown to pieces. At Barnstable an archway in the street collapsed. A woman was killed and a number of men and women seriously injured.

Memphis, Tenn.—A northbound Illinois Central passenger train was held up by three masked men on the outskirts of Memphis and the mail clerks were forced to surrender a registered mail pouch. The men escaped and the train proceeded after information of the holdup was telephoned to this city.

Aspen, Colo.—Carefully placing his head over the edge of a bathtub so that he would not mess up the room, N. B. Brown, proprietor of a hotel here, cut his throat with a razor. He was dead when found. Despondency over ill health is supposed to have prompted the deed. Brown was 52 years old.

Newburg, N. Y.—There has been shipped from here the largest chair ever made in this city. It was made to order for President Taft and is large enough to accommodate two ordinary men. The seat measures two feet two inches by two feet, and the back from the seat up is two feet seven inches.

Rome.—Typhoid fever, contracted while visiting the slums of Naples has proved fatal to Mrs. Florence Magee of Cincinnati, a member of the board of foreign missions, who arrived here with a party of tourists. Mrs. Magee died in the pesthouse here after a short illness. She had visited the slums to study conditions among the class of Italians who migrate to America, with a view to alleviating their trou... home city.

WOMEN LIVE LONGER THAN MEN SAY THE SCIENTISTS

Medical Records Authority; Give Reasons Other Than Having "Last Word."

Not because women naturally "want to have the last word," but because they require less oxygen than men, and so can stand more heat and a more rarefied air; because they suffer less from anaesthetics and are also more likely to survive hanging; because rigidity of the thorax and hardening of the arteries begin earlier in men than in women; because they have more power to endure suffering and resist disease, and because, in general, women are "physiological misers," while men are "physiological spendthrifts," are the main reasons given by Dr. A. H. Stewart in the Medical Record why there are more female than male centenarians.

The weaker sex is the more tenacious of life. There were about 4000 persons over 100 years of age in this country, as reported by the census of 1890—about 2600 women and 1400 men. Statistics of other countries show about the same ratio.

In every comunity there seem to be more widows than widowers, and perhaps an explanation of this phenomenon may be found in the more pronounced tendency to longevity among women than among men. Another point, which the learned physician does not discuss, is the question whether woman's industrial and economic efficiency is prolonged to a later period in life than man's.—Boston Globe.

Don't cringe—don't flinch,
Should fortune pinch
And all seem lost;

At any cost.

MUNYON.

I AM taking the above text for the reason that I want to instill into the people self-reliance, self-nobility, self-sovereignty. I want every person to feel that they are above deception, hatred, selfishness, jealousy, envy or revenge.

I want the person who is pinched by poverty, who has suffered great reverses, who is weighed down with some great sorrow to become acquainted with the redeeming power of Hope. I want them to take Hope as a companion, as a counsellor, as a light, as a medicine, for Hope is an ambassador from God. It is a teacher that shows us the beautiful. It fills our souls with songs and our tongues with praise.

To be hopeful one must be well, and to be well one must be hopeful.

That the lower bowel is responsible for most bodily ills is now being recognized by the leading physicians throughout the world. There is no further excuse for being bilious, for having headaches, for suffering with dyspepsia or indigestion, for putting up with a sluggish or lazy liver, for poisoning the blood as a result of constipation, for Munyon's Paw Paw Laxative Pills are positively correcting all these ailments. They assist in digesting everything that is put into the stomach. They stimulate the liver into activity. They start the secretions of the stomach, which carry off all the bile and poisonous matters through the bowels. They strengthen the lower bowel so that it empties itself naturally, without the aid of cathartics or foreign substances.

CALIFORNIA'S FIRST OFFICIAL AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS

Comparative Statement of General Farm Data Issued by Census Bureau.

Acting Census Director Falkner has just issued for publication the first official statement from the Census Bureau relative to the agricultural statistics of the state of California collected at the Thirteenth Decennial United States Census, April 15, 1910.

It is based on a preliminary comparative summary prepared under the supervision of Dr. Le Grand Powers, chief statistician of the division of agriculture in the Bureau of the Census. This summary shows for both the census of 1910 and that of 1900, the reported total value of farm land, buildings, and implements and machinery; total acreage; improved acreage; average acres per farm; average val... per acre of farm land and buildi... average value per acre of farm l... alone; and the aggregate expenditu... for labor and fertilizers. The only decreases during the decade, among the items for which percentages are given, occurred in the average acres per farm, 20 per cent; in the total improved farm acreage, 5 per cent; and in the total farm acreage, 3 per cent.

The statement shows in detail that the number of farms reported in 1910 was 87,670, as compared with 72,542 in 1900, an increase of 15,128, or 21 per cent.

Farm Values.

The total value of farm land and buildings was given in 1910 as $1,448,560,000, as against $707,913,300 in 1900, an increase of $740,647,000, or 105 per cent.

The total value of all farm land alone was reported in 1910 as $1,315,718, as compared with $630,445,000 in 1900, a gain of $685,273,000, or 109 per cent.

The total value of farm buildings alone was given in 1910 as $132,842,000, as against $77,468,000 in 1900, an increase of $55,374,000, or 71 per cent.

In 1910 the value of the farm land alone constituted 91 per cent of the total value of land and buildings, as compared with 89 per cent in 1900.

The reported value of farm implements and machinery was $36,393,000 in 1910, as against $21,312,000 in 1900, a gain of $15,081,000, or 71 per cent.

The total acreage reported in 1910 was 27,883,000 acres, as compared with 28,829,000 in 1900, a decrease of 946,000 acres, or 3 per cent. A part of this decrease apparent in the amount of farm land reported is attributed by the Census Bureau to errors in the Twelfth Census tabulation for Merced, Orange, and Sacramento Counties, involving 384,000 acres. This gives, as the net actual decrease in reported acreage, a total of 562,000 acres, or about 2 per cent, which, in part, represents land once in farms, but now in forest reserves. The land in such reserves increased during the decade from 9,000,000 to 28,000,000 acres, although, doubtless, a part represents rang land, unenumerated in 1910, owing to the fact that because of the early date of the census enumeration no one was on the land to make a report of it.

The improved acreage as returned in 1910 as 11,380,000 ... s against 11,959,000 in 1900, ... of 579,000 acres, or 5 per ... whole ... this decrea... aren... grows ou... that many ... of ... were incorrect...

The total number of farms conducted in 1910 by cash tenants, share tenants, and cash-share tenants, comprising the "all tenants" class, was 18,035, as against 16,760 in 1900, an increase of 1,275.

The total number of farms operated by managers in 1910 was 3,370, as compared with 3,253 in 1900, an increase of 117.

The total number of farms operated by the "all owners' class constituted 76 per cent of the whole number of farms in 1910 and 72 per cent in 1900; those operated by the "all tenants" class, 20 per cent in 1910 and 23 per cent in 1900; and those conducted by managers, 4 per cent in 1910 and 5 per cent in 1900.

Of the total number, 66,265, of farms operated in 1910 by the "all owners" class, there were 39,595, or 60 per cent, reported as owned free of incumbrance, and 26,670, or 40 per cent, mortgaged. There were 443 farms for which no mortgage report was secured, and these are included in the farms "owned free from debt."

In 1900 information was secured concerning the "owned farm homes." At that time 35,114, or 69 per cent, were reported free from debt, and 15,979, or 31 per cent, mortgaged. There were 1,494 in 1900 for which no mortgage report was secured, these being included in the farms free from debt. The Census Bureau has no information respecting the number of mortgaged farms leased to tenants.

Distribution According to Acreage Groups.

The statement relative to farms distributed according to certain acreage groups shows that those of 19 acres and under numbered 22,235 in 1910 and 15,082 in 1900, a gain of 7,153; of 20 to 49 acres, 20,533 in 1910 and 13,110 in 1900, a gain of 7,423; of 50 to 99 acres, 10,637 in 1910 and 8,067 in 1900, an increase of 2,570; of 100 to 174 acres, 11,945 in 1910 and 13,196 in 1900, a decrease of 1,251; of 175 to 499 acres, 12,520 in 1910 and 13,005 in 1900, a decrease of 485; of 500 to 999 acres, 5,112 in 1910 and 5,329 in 199, a decrease of 217; and of 1,000 acres and over, 4,688 in 1910 and 4,753 in 1900, a decrease of 65.

Acreage-Group Proportions.

Of the whole number of farms, those of 19 acres and under formed 25 per cent in 1910 and 21 pe... ent in 1900; those of 20—49 acres, 23 per cen... in 1910 and 18 per cent in 1900; those of 50—99 acres, 12 per cent in 1910 and 11 per cent in 1900; those of 100—174 acres, 14 per cent in 1910 and 18 per cent in 1900; those of 175—499 acres, 14 per cent in 1910 and 18 per ... it in 1900; those of 500—999 acres, ... r cent in 191... d 7 per cent in ... and ... o... 0 acres and over,

President's Address

CECIL KENNEDY

Parents, Friends, Ladies and Gentlemen:

We are delighted to see such a large audience this evening, and I am sure that our program will be good because of the great interest shown in us.

Now that we have reached the close of our Grammar School careers, we all agree that what we are at present and expect to be in the future is largely due to the excellent and beneficial influence of our worthy teachers.

In school we not only get knowledge from books but we also prepare for life. Our study of civics and history helps us to be good citizens. Language and literature show us how to speak and explain ourselves correctly. Arithmetic trains us to think clearly and rapidly. All the subjects taken together develop us into all around men and women.

School not only trains us for citizenship and prepares us for life, but it is real life. All of the problems and duties of later years are found in some form in school life, but the greatest purpose of education is not that we may get more out of life for ourselves but that we may do more for those about us.

During our Grammar School years we have played hard and worked hard and have endeavored to obtain the best results from our studies. Altho but a few of us have gone thru the entire eight years together, our large class has become well united, and we have spent two of the most pleasant and instructive years of our lives with our friend and teacher Professor Graves.

There are, in this class, musicians, artists and athletes. We also have some good orators whom you will soon have the opportunity of hearing. In behalf of the graduating class of Campbell Grammar School for 1911, I wish to bid you a most cordial and hearty welcome and hope you will enjoy our little program.

Woman's Suffrage

Lieutenant Governor A. J. Wallace says of suffrage: "The extension of suffrage so as to give woman the vote will be debated from one end of the state to the other. I am disposed to believe that the woman suffrage cause is a great cause and the vote will show, as it should, that a majority of the voters of the state are quite willing woman shall have the right of the ballot."

G. M. Ross, the well known Democrat, has advised the California Democrats to fall in line on the suffrage amendment. He declares that there can be no real popular government until there is universal suffrage and this, of course, includes women.

Not only physicians but men prominent in the educational work of the state are pledged to support the suffrage amendment. Among them is State Superintendent Hyatt who, in a letter read at a meeting of the Votes for Women Club of Los Angeles, declares himself for the movement.

If there is any spot on the globe where there is a disenfranchised citizen that doesn't want the franchise—that spot has not been located. Even in the District of Columbia the wave of enfranchise has broken through the wall of custom. The men of the District are seeking the ballot—so are the women who are endeavoring to have the Bristow bill amended to include the feminine vote.

...right to try for more than a guessing acquaintance; but the Heros, being ready for warfare, gave him blow for blow, and had conquered him by the second period of his reign. They grew kinder to the Heroines, and seemed inclined to offer lordly suggestions concerning the treatment of the monster. These crumbs of assistance were gladly gathered up, and the class threw off the tyranny of the oppressor; but even yet, the survivors look back with deep feelings of thankfulness for their deliverance, and it is so much more than a mere fairy story to them that they prefer to work all quantities by help of their old friend. "Fractions".

The new building, basket ball affairs, class parties, and triumphants of the boys on field days are all bright memories of the class that leaves Campbell Grammar School to-night.

The road has been some what uncertain, and some of our members we have lost at the turnings, some have out-stripped us in the race, and others we have picked up in our climb, but at the last we number nineteen, five of the original "Beginners" enforced by fourteen new recruits.

In the first few steps of the road all were "of the class" without much to distinguish them, except in color of hair ribbons or length of lead pencils; but after the passing of a few mile stones, artists, musicians, mechanics, and athletes, (not to mention students, known as "digs" and "T. P.'S" short for teacher's pets) began to develop in a most astonishing and eminently satisfactory way.

Friendships, principles, ambitions and appreciations which the Class of june, 1911, have gained in the eight happy years will go with them out into the new way which lies before.

With feelings of gratitude to Trustees, Teachers, Parents and Friends they close the history of their Grammar School Life.
